ACCESS AND ACHIEVE

Earning an MBA online provides flexibility

Equip yourself with the analytical tools you'll need to succeed in the increasingly complex business world by earning a Master of Business Administration online from Florida State University's College of Business.

From the convenience of home or the office, hone your skills and collaborate with high-caliber peers in an environment that fosters creativity and rewards problem-solving. You'll take classes that are taught by the same world-renowned professors who teach on campus and who are recognized leaders in their fields of research. Florida State University's program is flexible and affordable, and lessons learned can be immediately applied at work.

Elective courses can be tailored for management information systems, real estate or sales management. A global business seminar, which culminates with an overseas trip, will provide you with an invaluable opportunity to gain an international business perspective.
